Sub: Mandatory FOSTAC Training for Central and State Licensed FBOs under FSS Act 2006

Ref: Letter No 1704Dt.09.12.2019 of Commissioner Food Safety, Odisha

Sir/Madam,

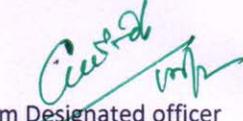

As per Sec 16(3)h) of FSS Act 2006, the Food Safety & Standard Authority of India will provide training of persons, who are or intended to become involved in Food Business, whether as Food Business Operators or employees or otherwise. Accordingly, it has been decided that, it would be mandatory for all Food Business having Central License or State License to have at least one trained and certified Food Safety Supervisors for every 25 Food handlers or part thereof on all their premises.

To implement this policy FSSAI has designed a large scale of training programme for Food Business Operators through FSSAI empanelled training partners.

In this connection you are instructed to take mandatory Fostac training with the help of approved training partners of FSSAI by depositing the required course fees as applicable. The details of approved training partners are available in the website. <http://fostac.fssai.gov.in>.
